

New Poetry by J.J. Starr

Concerning whether or not I am a horse

I strap torso & press arms to diaphragm with breath deep the distressed

voice of mistress

mumbles wishes

amid plum trees

& white headlight

bum-rushes the alleyway—

Am I a horse

kicking at its leathers?

How many full rides & how should I count?

Thought made in moonlight appearing cogent, succinct behind glass what makes a full ride?

Pulling hard & pulling harder, making iron break soil, dancing in dirt, hooves wet, mane draping the strength of a neck—

Am I

if no bit made better a turning head? No harm but tightened hips? & if my breast hardened by use?
My rump sheened in sunlight

Am I a horse?

Many hands have made my length & I've never been bought.

Many hands have made my length. Many hands.

God Between Us & All Harm

Lighted hallway, delighted guest, the television the lens of it, lends itself to you.
Trump again, brackish, weighted eyes dilated, throat-moaning

“The beauty of me is that I'm very rich.”

Beleaguered, who can even remember a face these days? My grandfather used to say things like you can drown in a teacup of water if you fall right. He was gladly on his way out.

Sometimes I see his point:

LSU live tiger-mascot dies of cancer at age eleven his empty cage strewn with flowers, paper cards a student says, “nobody else had a live tiger.”

where &

& where else?

L asks what I think of the song

Listening with ears pricked upon to Young Thug’s Wyclef Jean I cannot be sure where I meet it when he says let me put it & I think of course not—but then fingering the hem of my skirt do I reject his desire to squirt his cum on my face slick as a ghost because I'm honestly or dishonestly deposed? I want my skin touched—perhaps it's how he asks, telling me to deny my desire to bask

In the wet filth & become part perversion myself. Because it was me that morning who told my beloved to do it & yes, I did want kneeling deep in the tub looking up all my skin like a socket, drooling mouth blossomed, filled like a pocket.

L said to me, You don't think about the implication, the intention.

I said, I don't think of the gesture as blind contravention or anything more than body & mess upon mess in the deluge of sex. I confessed I want to be seen as a canvass.

She said, I don't want to be mean, with the swat of her hand, but he's no Jackson Pollack.
