

New Poetry from Mbizo Chirasha: “Casava Republics,” “Sad Revolutionary Lullabies,” “Rhetorics”

SUNSETS OF POLITICAL MASTURBATION / image by Amalie Flynn

CASAVA REPUBLICS

Juba

Child of lost sperm in sunsets of political masturbation

Wagadugu

Deadline of our revolutions

Darfur

Constipated stomach ,disease ravaged, bloodless dozing monk.

Nairobi

Culture lost in the dust of Saxon lexicon and gutter slang

Soweto

Xenophobia
Drunk and Afro-phobia sloshed.

Marikana

Cervical blister of the unfinished revolution fungi.

Harare

Corruption polonium deforming elders into political hoodlums

Congo

Lodge of secessionists and human guillotines

SAD REVOLUTIONARY LULLABIES

.....Sing songs of afghan circumcised,

Damascus masturbating bullets

Sing Belafonte Sing!

Of
revolutions that never crawled, sing!

Lumumba, see whiz kids castrating political gods

Nkurumah, see them mutilating revolutionary goddesses

Sing Kunta, Sing Kinte

I am tired of revolutions importing colonial mood,

Propaganda decayed pimps frying anthems like frikadels

Tired savages roasting constitutions in corruption oil pans

Sing songs of freedoms that never walked, Sing!

RHETORICS

Mandela, the summer sun that rose through rubbles of our winter

Gadafi and Sadamu making shadufs and pyramids

..... . another spring

Obama and Osama pulling rich political carrot in Segorong

Robin Island slept golden nightmares and charcoal dreams,

Soweto virgins cracking their under feet in the long walk to freedom

Faces carrying the burden of freedom and anthems.