Our Folklore

Long ago, you were molten rock, and I—well, I spoke the language of bears.

But now that I have been out of the forest for so long, all the words and grammar escape me, and I often find myself lost. And you—well, you are often mistaken for a statue in this solid state. No more rumblings and agitations. We are both quiet these days.
