They even pipe it into the bookstore

It's never quite silent, though there's no lowing, not from God nor his gluttoned blind bovine. Only the thudding of shuffling ungues on stereos hemmed, hidden in the high grass—muzak piercing through, prodding each tagged ear. Far better this way—now they needn't contemplate the cacophony in BARN 8, the strain of strings tucked tight to necks, jammed trumpets jutting through guts, and the flutes flushed fast with blood.

No, much better this way.
Bow, hark, try not to think.

His first time: flight by ropes
(for Corbin Vaughn)

it's fleeting
the rebuff
of a flutter
fleecing
the sway
in his wee
depleted eyes

exhausted
the college
girls of August
ferry a whole
life on the neck
heaving TVs
sleeping late
they flit
from mom
then return

we can't split
a pendulum
a heavy head
tightened white
like a fading grip

on the tethers
just out of reach

give it up already.

The edict

There is, without question, a tendency to beg for those things we have already.

For instance, I once
commanded God: turn me into a poet, else I'll pretend to be a walrus.

Bruggghllff!

Rappel Annuel

I
(for one and once)
intend to celebrate
a soothing din
the cleansing mess
fresh from the wet
wax-laden day.
